THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The following proclamation was issued by the President to-day:

A PROCLAMATION—At no recurrence of the season which the devout habits of religious people has made the occasion for giving thanks to Almighty God, and humbly invoking his continued favor, has the material prosperity enjoyed by our whole country been more conspicuous, more manifold or more universal. During the past year, also, unbroken peace with all foreign nations, the general prevalence of domestic tranquility, the supremacy and security of the great institutions of civil and religious freedom, have gladdened the hearts of our people and confirmed their attachment to their government, which the wisdom and courage of our ancestors so fitly framed, and the wisdom and courage their descendants have so firmly maintained, to be the habitation of liberty and justice to successive generations. Now, therefore, I, Rutherford B. Hayes, President of the United States, do appoint

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27th,

as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer, and I earnestly recommend that, withdrawing themselves from secular cares and labors, the people of the United States do meet together on that day in their respective places of worship, there to give thanks and praise to Almighty God for his mercies, and to devoutly beseech their continuance.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the City of Washington, this 3d day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and seventy-nine, and of the independence of the United States and one hundred and fourth. RUTHERFORD B. HAYES.

By the President: WM M. EVARTS, Secretary of State.

BY THE GOVERNOR OF WISCONSIN.

A Proclamation.

The orderly progress of the seasons brings again the autumn of the year; and it becomes us to follow the hallowed custom of our fathers, and consider the innumerable blessings which a kind Providence continues to bestow upon us. In an eminent degree, health, peace, reviving industries and a zealous care, by the people, for the Nation's honor and integrity, have characterized the past year, and now herald, with buoyant hope, the coming of the new:

Therefore, conforming to the recent proclamation of the President of the United States, in that behalf, I, WILLIAM E. SMITH, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby appoint as a day of public thanksgiving and praise; and I recommend to all the people to devote themselves to such religious services, social festivities and charitable deeds, upon that day, as shall best serve to make manifest their reverent gratitude to Almighty God.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27th INST.,

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed.
[L. S.] Done at the Capitol in the city of Madison, this seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy nine.

By the Governor: WILLIAM E. SMITH.
HANS B. WARNER, Secretary of State.

Some Democrats are still advising their friends in Congress to put themselves on their good behavior during the next session of Congress. These are precarious times for the Democrats.

Two years ago Superintendent Whitford ran about three thousand behind Governor Smith, and this year only eighteen hundred. This is a handsome endorsement, and one as fully deserved as it is handsome.

THE MAINE STEAL.

The Democrats can hardly resist the temptation to steal Maine. The circumstances there afford them an opportunity to steal, and their natural inclination will probably lead them into the commission of the act. The consequences of this step is not taken into account. They may gain the Legislature and elect their Governor, but that would last for only a year, and then that would be the end of the Democratic party in Maine. The people will not give the party the least shadow of an opportunity to steal after that. These troubles in that State may often occur, and will whenever the election is close, and it is a wonder that the Constitution has not been changed long ago. It is no credit to Senators Blaine and Hamlin, or to the intelligence of the people of that State to have such a Constitution. It is a humbug, and so long as it remains as it is now, there will be constantly recurring temptations to manipulate the returns for partisan purposes. The Constitution should as safely guard against a thing of this kind as the Constitution of Wisconsin. The whole system of electing Governor when three parties are in the field, and no one has a majority, is cumbersome and foolish, and in fact is a disgrace to the State. If the Republicans do not want the Democrats to steal, they must make theft impossible. That is the only way they can be prevented from counting out Republicans. Throw down the bars, and the party will walk right in, and if it can obtain the Governship and the Legislature by fraudulent means, it will not hesitate as to the means. Therefore, inasmuch as we cannot expect the Democratic party to become honest, the Republicans must take aggressive steps in putting a little common sense in the Constitution, and if they fail to do that they will be as responsible for frauds as are the Democrats.

Look at some of the provisions of the Constitution. Instead of providing that the candidate for a State office who shall receive the highest number of votes shall be declared elected, it requires that the person elected shall have a clear majority over all. But this is not the worst feature of the Constitution. If no candidate has received a majority, then the choice of Governor and the State officers must be made by the Legislature. Then to make matters worse, and to complicate the manner of electing State officers, the House, which corresponds to our Assembly, is required to send to the Senate two names from the list of candidates voted for at the last election, and the Senate is restricted to these two names. Last year these foolish provisions and cumbrous machinery worked to the defeat of the Republican candidate for Governor notwithstanding he had received the largest number of votes of the candidates before the people. The Senate was Republican, the House was Greenback. The House sent to the Senate the names of the Democratic and Greenback candidates for Governor, and the Republican Senate was compelled to elect one of them! It, therefore, being tightly cornered, voted for Garcelon, the Democrat, and he was accordingly elected.

What the Democrats want to do now is to refuse enough certificates to Republican members-elect to make both branches Democratic. To do this they will have to count out seven Republican Senators, and twenty-eight members of the House. Whether or not they will succeed in this game is not definite, but they propose to try it. Should they succeed, it will be a punishment the people would well nigh merit for allowing such cumberous machinery in the Constitution of the State.

THE MYERS SUBORNATION CASE.

The case of Issaac Myers, of the town of Spring Grove, Green county, which has gained considerable notoriety, was concluded at Madison the latter part of last week, the defendant being found guilty of the crime of subornation of perjury. It does not often happen that a person is arrested on the charge of suborning witnesses, and when charged, convictions are rare owing to the fact that positive evidence against the person charged with the crime is difficult to obtain. These facts have attached to the case of Myers considerable interest, and the ground on either side has been hotly contested by the best lawyers in Southern Wisconsin.

A brief history of the case is this: Last December, Mr. Myers was put on trial before the Green County Circuit to answer to the charge of committing rape upon a girl only nine or ten years old. It was charged that the crime was committed in a blacksmith shop where Myers was at work. The testimony of the girl was the only testimony against him. During this trial two witnesses were offered on the part of the defense—Clemens and Wagner. They were prepared to swear, and did swear, that at the time of the alleged raping was going on, they were on the outside of the shop, looking through a knot-hole, and were watching what was going on within, and that they saw nothing wrong. This cleared Myers, the jury finding him not guilty.

Notwithstanding his acquittal, there was strong suspicion that both Clemens and Wagner were suborned by Myers, and hence he was arrested on the charge of subornation of perjury, and the case taken to the Waukesha Circuit for trial. The charge in this case was that of suborning Wagner, and after a long and bitter fight Myers was acquitted. He was again arrested, the case being taken to the Dane Circuit, and after another hot legal fight, he was found guilty of hiring Clemens to swear falsely in his behalf.

The prosecution of this important case was conducted by District Clawson, of Green, and Bennett & Sale, of this city. The counsel for the defense consisted of Judge Dunwiddie and A. S. Douglas, of Monroe, John Winans, of Janesville, and William F. Vilas, of Madison. It is said that the cross-examination of Myers, by John R. Bennett, was the sharpest and most searching which had been heard in that circuit for years. He charged upon the defendant with all the force at his command, and scattered his statements right and left. The severity with which he conducted the cross-examination completely demolished the witness and created a scene in which the attorneys took part, that rarely happens in Court. The importance of the case and the desperate character of the crimes charged against Myers, aroused much interest on both sides, and Mr. Bennett never appeared to a better advantage than when he had the defendant under cross-examination. In the cross examination of a witness under circumstances like these. Mr. Bennett displays remarkable ability, and in fact has no superior in the State.

It is understood that the case will be taken to the Supreme Court if Judge Stewart agrees to grant the necessary stay of proceedings. In the mean time Mr. Myers will be bailed out, the bonds being fixed at $5,000. The sentence, should the Court refuse to grant a stay of proceedings, will be not less than three nor more than fourteen years in the State Prison. The defendant is 45 years old, and has a wife and children.

A MAN WITH A BABY'S MIND.

The Singular Case of the Rev. Dr. Martin Ormond, of Burgettstown.

Condensed from the Pittsburg Dispatch.

A very singular case comes from Burgettstown, which place the Rev. Dr. Marcus Ormond left on Saturday, that he might walk through the Southern States in search of health. Dr. Ormond was born and raised in Burgettstown. His education was of the best. He became an honored clergyman of the United Presbyterian church and served as chaplain of the One Hundred and Fortieth Pennsylvania Regiment during the war. Late one night in 1878, while he was in bed, word reached him in Washington, Pa., that his residence and fine library at West Alexander had been burned. This was a great shock to him. In March of last year he complained of pain in his head. For two months he was unconscious and lost his speech. Gradually he began to make known his thoughts, but he was very much like a child. Mrs. Ormond and his children worked hard with him, and finally he learned the alphabet and could make out short words. He knew the faces of his children, but could not remember their names. When he wanted Mollie he would ask for Clara. The physicians advised that his mind should not be overstrained again. They also concluded that his weight should be reduced, for he was in robust physical health, and he was fed with skimmed milk. By such treatment his weight was brought down from 220 to 150 pounds. He has not improved any for the last year. His writing is merely a mechanical act—simply a copy of the words his wife writes for him. Singularly enough, he is able to count, and can make a good bargain if the transaction takes place on the same occasion. He takes great interest in the Grant boom, and likes to have notices of it read to him. Physicians cannot account for his condition. He goes on the walking tour to strengthen his mind. His wife and daughters are carrying on a furnishing store in Burgettstown.

A GRANT SURPRISE.

How General Grant Paid Wisconsin a Visit—His Trip to Platteville.

GALENA, Nov. 22—General Grant was a passenger on board the train for Platteville this morning, over the Galena and Wisconsin Railroad, much to the surprise and perturbation of the officers of the road, who were not advised of his intention to visit Platteville, until he quietly walked into the office and applied for a ticket. He was accompanied on the trip by his old-time friend, Captain Estey, of this city. A telegram apprised the people of the village of his coming, and on the arrival of the train he was greeted by fully one-half of the populace who had turned out to welcome the great captain. The General was escorted to the private carriage of Major Rountree, and driven to the residence of the latter, where he sat down to an elegant repast prepared in his honor. Dinner over, the parlors of the Rountree mansion were thrown open, and hundreds of the villagers entered, and paid their respects to the General. At 2:15 he boarded the train for home, followed by the cheers of the people who flocked to the depot to see him off. The train arrived in Galena at 5:50. The General was delighted with the trip, and the cordial and hospitable manner in which he had been received by the Badgers of Platteville.

POLITICAL.

Tennessee Republicans Confident of Carrying the State.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23—Tennessee Republicans now in Washington speak with a good deal of confidence of their ability to carry the State next year, or at least roll up a larger straight Republican vote than has ever yet been brought out in that State. They report the Democracy split up and demoralized on the State debt issue, while the Republicans are a unit in favor of paying the debt. About one-half of the Democrats are supporting John Savage for Governor, and he represents the extreme repudiation elements of the State. A very large per cent of the Democrats will not vote for a repudiator under any circumstances. On the other hand, the Republicans are in better condition than at any time for ten years. They are united upon all questions. There is a strong feeling in favor of the nomination of William Rule, of Knoxville, as Republican candidate for Governor, upon a debt-paying platform. Mr. Rule is the proprietor of the only Republican daily paper south of the Ohio, with one exception. He is a native Tennesseean and stands well.

AN EDITORIAL ROW.

LA CROSSE, Nov. 22—This evening at about 6:30 o'clock, a street encounter occurred between W. R. Finch, editor of The Republican and Leader, of this city and A. Foote, of Pomeroy & Foote, proprietors of The Democrat. A newspaper war has been in progress for several days between the two papers. This morning The Democrat called Finch various unpleasant names and said that Washburne, whom it is intimated owned the paper, would discharge him January 1st. In his paper this evening Finch had an article on his opponents, charging that James Vincent, Foote's father-in-law, had furnished the money to get Pomeroy out of Chicago and start the concern here. At the hour above indicated Foote met Finch near the corner of Second and State streets, and asked him: "Why do you mix my father-in-law in this fight. This is between you and Pomeroy?" Finch replied: "You leave out everybody but me, and I'll leave out everybody but Pomeroy." After a few words, Foote said: "You'll settle this row with me," and then struck him with with his cane, felling him to the ground. A friend of Finch's, T. A. Dyson, a circuit court reporter for this circuit, who was present grabbed Foote, but he broke away and ran. Finch, who had recovered his feet, followed and fired two shots at Foote, but with out effect, but as Foote got out of reach he gave up the chase. The affair has caused great excitement in the city to-night.

CAPTURED.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 23—Deputy Marshal Wing Keshlear, of Jackson county, returned from Texas this morning, having in custody the noted Allen Palmer, who is supposed to have been connected with the Glendale train robbery, on the Chicago & Alton Road, last October. Palmer is a brother-in-law of Jesse and Frank James, and hes ever been known as one of their gang. He, it is thought, is the dark whiskered man who knocked the express messenger down in the car on the night of the robbery, because he refused to give up the keys to the safe. He was unmasked at the time, and it is thought the messenger will identify him without doubt on his arrival Monday. Every measure was resorted to, in Texas, to keep him out of the hands of the officers, but the Governor of the "Lone Star State," after hearing testimony in two habeas corpus cases, remanded him to the Missouri officers. He was heavily ironed during the trip, as a rescue was hinted at while passing through the Indian Nation.

SUICIDAL.

MILWAUKEE, Nov 22—J W Clark, of Black Creek, Outagamie County, committed suicide this morning in a saloon run by John Sliegerson, oppposite the Union Depot, by taking strychnine. Dr. Martin, who who was called, arrived before Clark died, and listened to what was at first supposed to be a terribly startling confession, Clark saying he had killed himself because of remorse for having killed his father about five years ago. For a while the confession created a good deal of excitement, and then it was discovered that the dead man was a lunatic whose delusion was that he had killed his father. Clark was a man of about 57 years of age.

A NOVEL DEMAND.

WATERTOWN, Nov. 22—A novel demand was made upon our County Board of Supervisors at their session which adjourned to-day. The $1,000 bail, forfeited by the bunko or three-card monte men who operated on some of our citizens last June at Cole's circus, and which is now in the county treasury, was politely demanded of the Board by the victims on a reinbursement for the loss sustained through the confidence game so successfully played upon them. The Board demurred at the modest request, and the money forfeited by the non-appearance of the gamblers for trial remains where it will do the most good.

OBITUARY.

MADRID Nov. 23—When the ex-Empress Eugenie arrived here her mother, the Countess de Montijo, was already dead. King Alfonso, who was awaiting Eugenie at the station, communicated the news of her mother's death. Eugenie wished to go to he mothers residence, but was prevailed upon to go to Alba Palace, where many thousands of visitors called and inscribed their names.

MOODY AND SANKEY.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 23—Moody and Sankey, the revivalists, arrived here yesterday, and will Tuesday night inaugurate a series of religious meetings, to continue all winter. The city will be divided into five districts, and details of the work placed in the hands of a committe of laymen, one from each evangelical denomination.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

MADISON, Nov. 22—Phillip Steel, employed in Stevens' brick yard, near this city, was crushed to death to-day by the closing in of a mass of seven or eight tons of frozen clay. Steel was 60 years old, and leaves six motherless children, four of them being very young.

The Mystery of the Skeleton in Door County.

The Sturgeon Bay Expositor publishes a lengthy account of developments which have followed the discovery of the skeleton found in Hibbard's field, at Jacksonport, Door county, from which it appears that about 22 years ago a man named H. B. Bretholf left Sturgeon Bay, for some point north on the peninsula, and that he never returned. Diligent search made at the time failed to throw any light on his whereabouts, or to disclose what had been his fate. The city of Kenosha offered a reward of $600 for the recovery of the body and the apprehension of the murderers, should he have met with foul play. The search and offered reward failed to bring to light the body of the missing man or the manner of his death. The whole matter has been involved in mystery to this time. It was known that Mr. Bretholf had a considerable sum of money upon his person when he left Sturgeon Bay, and it was thought probable he had been murdered for his money. It is now thought that the skeleton found may prove to be the remains of the missing man. It would be singular if, after the lapse of over twenty years, the finding of a skeleton should lead to the identification of the lost man and to the disclosure of the cause and manner of his death, and perhaps if he was foully dealt with, to the apprehension of his murderer.

A Good Sort of Society.

From the N. Y. Tribune.

No man, unless fool enough to throw his money into the river or into the fire, would go on buying lottery tickets if he could be made to comprehend the fatuity of so doing. Pennsylvania once had a special society for the suppression of lotteries which did good work in securing their abolition in that State. We are not sure that a similar society would be useless now and here.

AN OLD BACHELOR'S CLOCKS.

Appraising the Estate of an Eccentric Old Gentleman of Pennsylvania

From the Reading Eagle.

Not far from the village of Goughlersville, near the extreme end of Brecknock township, up to within a few weeks ago lived an old and eccentric bachelor by the name of Elias Fittering. Yesterday Squire Gugler took the affidavits of the appraisers of the deceased's personal property, the appraisment having been made under the supervision of the attorney for the parties. I C Becker, of this city Fittering was past seventy years of age, and lived on his forty acre farm alone and unattended. Several weeks ago he died, when his four-roomed log-building, with all its curiosities, was locked up until yesterday, when the appraisment was made.

The great hobby of the old man was clocks. In his little home he had no less than fourteen clocks of as many styles, sizes and shapes. Nearly all of them were old styles and contained musical boxes and automaton figures. In one room he was obliged to lower a portion of the floor and raise a portion of the ceiling in order to place in a tall clock of a peculiar description. He had small clocks containing "cuckoos," and large clocks that played tunes and worked a number of wooden figures. One figure was that of a pretty woman, which he regarded as his wife His "sisters, and his cousins, and his aunts" were pictured in the remaining figures.

In the society of these speechless automatons the old man spent many happy hours in contentment. In his "parlor" was a large organ for which, about 1832 he paid $400. This huge instrument is all enclosed, and the keyboard is only reached after several coverings are removed. It was built in Reading, but in now somewhat out of tune. The organ is appraised at $40. In his cellar the old man had a splendid cider press built at great cost There he pressed his cider and cooled apple butter. Pots of apple butter and jars of preserves were found in the house supposed to be at least thirty years of age. In one corner of his room was a cane with the head carved to represent Adam and Eve, with a trailing serpent near them.

He had several costly musical boxes and an accordeon and flute. Upon these two instruments he was quite an expert performer. All his tastes ran to clocks and musical instruments, in the purchase of these he was liberal; while he was entirely indifferent in the matter of furnishing his house. His domestic comforts from a modern standpoint were very limited, but, he was always apparently happy. He had a large lot of the strangest looking tools; two new carriages were found packed under a quantity of hay, and a large number of quaint and curious articles were found in his house. He had fine harness and plenty of hay, and the appraisement amounted to quite a large sum. The deceased had no children, and his estate is to be divided among his collateral heirs, about three in number. It is thought that no other house in the county contains so many clocks and other quaint and curious articles to be compared with his.

Instantaneous Photography.

Photographing horses in rapid motion has lately been applied in San Francisco to the study of human action, particularly that of athletes, while performing, their various feats. In order to display as completely as possible the movements of the actors' muscles, they wore brief trunks only while performing, and thus all the intricate movements of boxing, fencing, wresling, jumping and tumbling were instantaneously and exactly pictured. The first experiment consisted in photographing an athlete while turning a back somersault.

He stood in front of the camera motionless, and at a signal sprang in the air, turned backward and in a second was again in his original position. Shortly after the time consumed, fourteen negatives were clearly taken, showing him in as many different positions. The same man was also taken while making a running high jump. The jumping gage was placed at the four foot notch in order to give the man an easy jump, for in making it fourteen stout hempen strings had to be broken, as in photographing trotting horses. From the camera to a point beyond the line on which the jump was made a number of strings were stretched. The two base lines were only a few inches above the ground, and from them to the apex the strings were placed equal distances apart. In jumping, seven of the strings were broken in ascendin and seveng in descending. The strings were tautly drawn, and so connected with the camera that as each one parted a negative was produced. Other pictures were taken of men men raising dumb bells, and the various movements of boxing, fencing, and the like.

GARRISON'S HEAD.

The Price Which Georgia Set Upon the Editor of the "Liberator," Alive or Dead.

From the Savannah News.

In regard to the $5,000 reward offered by the State for the capture and bringing to Georgia for trial of William Lloyd Garrison, as a stirrer up of sedition, insurrection and bloodshed, the Atlanta Constitution has searched among the State archives at the Capitol and found the action of the Legislature on the subject. On page 116 of the Senate journal for Saturday, November 26, 1831, appears the following: "Mr. Nisbet laid upon the table the following resolutions: Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Georgia in General Assembly met, That the sum of —— thousand dollars be and the same is hereby appropriated, to be paid to any person or persons who shall arrest and bring to trial, under the laws of this State, the editor or publisher of a certain paper called the Liberator, published in the town of Boston, and State of Massachusetts, or who shall arrest and bring to trial, under the laws of this State, any other person or persons who shall utter publish or circulate within the limits of this State said paper called the Liberator, or any other paper, circular, pamphlet, letter or address of a seditious character; and that his Excellency the Governor is hereby authorized and requested to issue his warrant upon the Treasury for said sum of —— thousand dollars in favor of any person or persons who shall have arrested and brought to trial under the laws of this State the editor and publisher of the Liberator, or who shall have arrested and brought to trial, under the laws of this State, any other person or persons who shall utter, publish or circulate within the limits of this State said paper called the Liberator, or any other paper, circular, pamphlet, letter or address of a seditious character, and that these resolutions be inserted in the appropriation act. And. Resolved further, That his Excellency the Governor cause the foregoing resolutions to be published in the public journals of this State, and such other papers as he may think proper, and pay for the publication thereof out of the contingent fund." These resolutions were afterward, on the 30th of November, taken up by the Senate, the blank filled in with "five." On the 24th of December they passed the House by a vote of 43 yeas to 26 nays.

SPLENDIDS!

Sold from the little store, 56 North Main Street, alone, and every one giving perfect satisfaction. It is an easy matter for dealers to every season put in print, "Well, now we have got a stove to beat the Splendid." But when you ask them to show up the points of superiority, about all the satisfaction you get is "Oh! we've more frills and nickle plates, and foot rails," &c.; but when you get down to business, the following points possessed by the SPLENDID, and found in no other stove to date, is what troubles all the boys to get around:

1st, By the Ventilated Base we present one-third more heating surface.

2d. By the Latch fastenings for all doors, in place of Turn Buckels, you are safe from doors springing open, thereby emitting gases into rooms

3d. By the Sliding and Vibrating Grate we enable you to have a fresh fire at any time free from dust and waste of coal.

4th. The sectional Fire Pot will last longer and can be replaced at one third the expense of any other,

5th, The Revolving Top swinging within circle of stove, never falls off or gets broken.

In regard to finish and fittings of castings and beauty of design, are way ahead of all competition.

In regard to the Splendid Oven or Parlor Cook, we are authorized to make a public test at any time, and guarantee to get up steam quicker and hold it longer on same amount of coal.

DEBILITY AND NERVOUSNESS ARE CURED!

No organ of thought or action can be employed without the assistance of the blood, and no organ can be employed safely or with impunity without a supply of healthy blood. With healthy blood the exercised organs become well developed, whether they be muscular or intellectual. By the use of FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES the blood is speedily vitalized and purified, and so made capable of producing a sound mind and a sound body.

"Persons suffering from impure blood, or whose health is giving way, either as ministers or those who study closely, will find in the Syrup the material to build them up, and the tonic to keep them there." DR. CLAY.

PITTSFIELD, Me., March, 1872.

MR. JAMES I. FELLOWS,—Dear Sir: During the past two years I have given your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites a fair though somewhat severe trial in my practice, and am able to speak with confidence of its effects. In restoring persons suffering from emaciation and the debility following Diptheria, it has done wonders. I constantly recommend its use in all affections of the throat and lungs. In several cases considered hopeless, it has given relief, and the patients are fast recovering; among these are Consumptive and old Bronchial subjects, whose diseases have resisted the other modes of treatment. For impaired digestion, and in fact for debility from any cause, I know of nothing equal to it. Its direct effect in strengthening the nervous system renders it suitable for the majority of diseases.

I am, sir, yours truly,

THE MAN OF MANY CATS.

A Most Pitifully Strange Romance Stumbled Upon by a Party of Hunters.

From the San Jose Cal., Herald.

A party of hunters while in search of game lately in the Santa Cruz hills, came upon a rude hut in a small clearing, about six miles from Patchen, and nearly the same distance from the Santa Cruz stage road. Impelled by curiosity they approached the structure and finding the door open went in. Imagine their surprise and wonder at discovering as the sole inmate of the room (there was but one) what must have been originally intended for a man. The creature was but partially clothed, the body from the waist upward and from the knees downward being entirely naked. His hair is long and matted, and his face, bronzed from exposure and seamed and scarred from conflicts with wild beasts or enemies of of his own race presented an appearance that startled the beholders. Their consternation was not lessened when they beheld his eyes, which protruding from the sockets, glared like those of a wild man. His arms, breasts and legs were covered with long, coarse hair. For a moment they gazed and then were about to depart with celerity, when the man beckoned for them to remain, at the same time muttering in some unintelligible jargon. The hunters, not without trepidation, took seats on a huge log, the only furniture in the room. Casting their eyes about they were still more astonished at what before had appeared to be a black mass of something around and about the presumed owner of this habitation. They saw at least fifty cats, all black and of all sizes; some as large and as fierce and wild looking as a wild cat. Some of the larger started for the visitors with spines erect, when the man gave a peculiar whistle and all immediately clustered around him again. Wondering what was to come next, the hunters maintained, for some time, a perfect silence. Then one spoke up and asked the man how far it was to Patcher but no answer came. Other questions were asked, but the man only looked at them with a puzzled stare. All at once he leaped to his feet, gave a yell that nearly curdled the blood of the listeners, and bounded out of doors. The cats followed and the hunters saw them scampering away over the clearing into the brush and out of sight. After remaining for some time in the room the hunters, noticing a small box in one corner, took it up, opened it and found therein several sheets of writing paper, old and faded and with writing hardly legible. After considerable effort they managed to read it, and were rewarded with the following strange narrative, which explained what they desired to know concerning the strange occupant of the hut:

ISLE OF JAMAICA, 1871.

My name is R. E Venta. My father, a native of Spain, and my mother, an English woman, died many years ago. I fear that I am going crazy, that before another week arrives I shall be bereft of reason In order then that the world may at some time known my strange history, I have determined to write down while my senses are acute and my mind clear. I have been for five years steward on the plantation of Mr Morris. Two years ago I married a creole, Felice Gallegos, a beautiful woman and one whom I believed could make me happy. We lived in peace until our child was born. An American then came to the plantation and met Felice. They were often together. I suspected nothing until I obtained complete and overwhelming proof of her infidelity. She came home one night after meeting with her lover, and then I told her what I had discovered. I cannot remember what I said. I only know that when I concluded this she-devil caught her child from the bed and flung it on the floor. Then she sprang at me with uplifted dagger my face will show what resulted. I was unprepared for such an attack but managed to seize Felice and wrest the dagger from her hands. Half mad from the blow she had given me, I caught her by the throat and plunged the dagger into her breast; she sank without a groan to the floor. Then I must have been mad for a week afterward I found myself miles away, in the forest; I feel that I must leave, must go somewhere, anywhere and hide myself. My brain troubles me and I am afraid that I shall soon go mad, I will write this and keep it with me. The time may come when it may be given to the world.

The wording ended here. The presumption was that Venta came to California and wandering to the lonely clearing in the Santa Cruz hills erected the hut and lived there alone. The hunters remained until dusk, hoping to meet the strange occupant again, but he did not come. The next day they came again, but the man was still absent. He probably has never returned to the spot. One of the hunters, James Bowman, of San Mateo county, who gave us the above particulars and who copied the letter of confession, intends to make another visit soon.

A PIKE COUNTY GHOST.

The "Spook" That is Causing a Sensation About Milford.

Philadelphia Times.

MILFORD, Nov. 15

The latest sensation in this part of the country is a real live ghost. Fifty-two years ago a man named John Goble was found lying in a pool of blood on the road leading from Milford to Dingman's Ferry. A large gash was found in the side of his head, and it was supposed that the old man had been murdered and robbed. He was buried immediately after the Coroner's inquest, and in a few years was entirely forgotten. About three weeks ago the stage driver that carries the Philadelphia mail between Milford, and Deleware Water gap, while passing the spot where Goble was murdered, saw an object clothed in white start up from the ground and walk in the road just in front of the horses. The driver urged his team on, but the "ghost" still kept a little in advance. After trotting his horses some distance, the driver stopped and as he dismounted from the stage the ghost sank into the ground and disappeared. This was repeated two or three evenings, and the mail-carrier at last became alarmed and armed himself with a six-shooter. Since that time he has seen the ghost at a distance several times, but he has not shot at it. The mail-carrier's name is Scales, and he told his story in Milford, where it spread like wildfire. Parties were organized to search for the wandering spirit, and one party saw it at a short distance. They fired several shots at the object, and it disappeared. A party of young ladies, accompanied by one gentleman, a day or two ago visited the place where the ghost is usually seen. About a hundred yards from the spot is an old deserted house, and one of the young ladies, who was more courageous than the rest, started to walk around this old house in search of the "spook." When about half way around the building she heard a groan, and turning around, she saw, standing just behind her, an object about six feet tall, clothed in white. She screamed and fainted, but before the remainder of the party reached her the "ghost" had vanished. The "spirit" has since been seen twice, and on each occasion it was pursued, but it always vanished after reaching a certain place in the woods. It is supposed by many that the ghost is a man, dressed up in a sheet to create a sensation. Others, who are more superstitious, believe it is the spirit of John Goble, searching for his murderer. Whatever it is, it certainly succeeded in creating a decided sensation,

The Deepest Well in the World.

The sinking of the deep artesian well near Buka Pesth, Hungary, is now completed; the works were commenced as far back as 1868, and during their progress many interesting facts relating to geology and underground temperature have been brought to light. The total depth is 3,200 feet, and the temperature of the water it yields is nearly 163 degrees Fahrenheit. The temperature of the mud brought up by the borer was taken every day, and was found to increase rapidly, in spite of the loss of heat during its ascent, down to a depth of 2,300 to 2,700 feet. Beyond this point the increase was not so marked. At depth of 3,000 feet the temperature was 177 degrees Fahrenheit, giving an average increase of one for every twenty-three feet bored. Water first commenced to well up at a depth of 3070 feet; here its temperature was 110 degrees Fahrenheit, and from that point onward it rapidly increased both in quantity and temperature. Thus, at 3,092 feet, its temperature had already risen to 150 degrees Fahrenheit, and the yield in twenty-four hours from 9,500 to 44,000 gallons. Finally, when the boring had reached 3,200 feet, at which point it was stopped, the temperature of the water, as it burst from the orifice of the tube, was 165 degrees Fahrenheit, and the volumetric yield 272,000 gallons in the twenty-four hours. The yield was afterwards reduced to 167,200 gallons in consequence of the bore being lined with wooden tubes, which reduced its diameter. The water obtained disengages carbonic acid in abundance, and also contains nitrogen and a little suphureted hydrogen, and eighty grains per gallon of fixed matters, chiefly sulphates and carbonates of potash, soda, lime and magnesia.

CATARRH

THE EYE, EAR and THROAT

Successfully Treated with

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

SUCCESS is the test of merit, and success in the treatment of Catarrhal Affections, after so many miserable failures, means undoubted specific curative properties in the remedy used. Does SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for Catarrh possess such properties? The evidence, in the shape of unsolicited testimonials from the most respectable people in all stations of life, must be conclusive on this point. Never, we believe, in the history of popular medicines has such valuable testimony been offered, freely offered, in favor of any remedy than that in the possession of the proprietors of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. And valuable as it is, it does not represent a thousandth part of the recommendations which are to-day offered by friends to friends in its favor. People of wealth and refinement in all parts of the country daily admit its superiority over any method of cure known to the regular medical profession, but shun the publicity incidental to a published statement. Hence the testimonials in our possession represent but a small part of those withheld for the reason mentioned. The following unsolicited testimonial from HENRY WELLS, Esq., of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, is an outspoken indorsement of which we are justly proud.

INVALUABLE.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER, Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.: Gentlemen,—I have for some months felt it a duty that I owe to suffering humanity to write you, stating the great benefit that I have derived from the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for CATARRH. For more than 20 years I have been afflicted with this very troublesome complaint. I have tried all the remedies that I could find, but without material or permanent benefit. Last fall the disease had arrived at that state that I must have relief or die. The entire membranous system had become so inflamed, and the stomach so disordered, that it was a doubtful matter whether I could go to the Pacific coast, or if I did go whether I should live to come back or not. I saw an advertisement of this medicine, and although being very incredulous about specifics or nostrums of any kind, yet in sheer desperation I tried this, and was at once benefited by it. The changes of climate, a chronic disease of the liver, and my age—over 70—may prevent my entire restoration, but the benefit I derive from its daily use is to me invaluable, and I am hoping to be completely cured, and at last arrive at a respectable old age.

If this statement of my case can be of any service to those afflicted as I have been, and enable you to bring this remedy into more general use in this country or on the Pacific coast (where it is much needed), my object in writing this note will be obtained.

Very truly yours, HENRY WELLS,
Aurora, N. Y., June, 1876. of Wells, Fargo & Co.

"OH! MY BACK!"

The wonderful success of HUNT'S REMEDY has induced a great many to advertise their worthless preparations for the cure of Kidney Diseases, hoping to sell them on its well established reputation. Do not risk your health by using any of these injurious preparations, but try at once HUNT'S REMEDY, which has stood the test for 30 years.

LATE HOME TESTIMONY:

199 Westminster St., Providence, R. I., Oct. 13, 1879.—WM. E. CLARKE—Dear Sir: I have suffered very much with my Kidneys and Liver for years. In January, 1879, I grew worse, bloating fearfully. My physician, one of the best in Providence, wished me to try HUNT'S REMEDY, as safe and reliable, as he had known it to cure Kidney Diseases when all other medicines had failed. I did so, and in twenty-four hours I passed four or five gallons of water, the bloat was removed, and the great relief made me feel a well man.—Were it not for HUNT'S REMEDY I would not be alive to-day. E. E. SHEPARDSON.

HUNT'S REMEDY is prepared EXPRESSLY for the Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, Liver and Urinary Organs. Dropsy, Gravel, Diabetes, Bright's Disease of the Kidneys and Incontinence and Retention of Urine, and is used by the Medical Faculty.

ELECTRICITY!

The Excelsior Galvanic Belt.

The medium for the administration of the Heavenly Remedy. After years of toil and patient experiment, we take pleasure in laying before the public the most perfect instrument for the application of Electricity to the human body ever invented. Constructed on strictly scientific principles, and combining in its manufacture the latest discoveries of eminent electricians, we unhesitatingly declare that it is unequalled in power and curative influence. Its superiority over the belts in the market consists in the fact that it gives a real current. The belts that pretend to generate a current of electricity by the action of the acids of the body upon plates of zinc, or other metals contained in them, are unmitigated frauds of no more value than an ordinary girdle.

The Excelsior Galvanic Belt is an undoubted remedy for any disorder to which Electricity is applicable, Paralysis, Neuralgia, all forms of Nervous Debility, such as IMPOTENCY, SPERMATORRHEA, together with all the protean symptoms connected with them, are promptly and permanently relieved by the use of the Excelsior Galvanic Belt.

The multitude of disorders classed under the term of FEMALE WEAKNESS, are readily amenable to the current generated by the Excelsior Galvanic Belt. Chronic Disorders of the LIVER, KIDNEYS, Stomach and Spleen, are promptly cured by it. Rheumatism flies before its magic influence, like the dew before the rays of the sun. Dyspepsia and indigestion, those baleful monsters who render life a burden to so many thousands, are dislodged from their citadels by its potent influence. The Belt is so constructed that a current can be directed through any part desired, so that any portion of the body affected can be brought under its influence.

Its cheapness, combined with its efficiency, gives it a decided advantage over any other Belt in the market. It excels in durability, and if broken can be repaired without difficulty. It does not soil the clothing or irritate the skin, and the patient wears it with positive comfort instead of the intolerable nuisance that other Belts are. Send for circulars.

Price of Belt, $10.00; with suspensory for nervous debility, complete, $11.00. Sent free by mail on receipt of price. The Western M'f'g Co., 155 and 157 Dearborn St., Chicago.

CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEFLETS.

—Gobble the gobblers.

—The Harris works have been putting in a new boiler.

—Why don't our militiamen try a little target shooting?

—"Our Next President," can be seen at the Opera house to-night.

—Miss Ella Few will play a violin solo at Apollo hall to-morrow evening,

—Prof Cumnock arrived this afternoon, and is the guest of Rev. F. L. Chapell.

—The City Fathers meet to-night to talk of lamp-posts and other municipal affairs.

—Go and hear Professor Boston's famous laughing song at Lappin's hall to-morrow night.

—The Dillon party, including John himself, have arrived and are at the Myers' house.

—Ford & Littlejohn have started the upper mill, and the "wheels go round" with a lively whirl which bespeake a lively run of business.

—Thanksgiving service at Christ church, Thursday next at 10:30 a. m. The rector will preach the sermon. Theme, "Crowning the Year"

—One of the boarders at the Pember house in trying to explain how the fire started says that a man went up to his room, struck a light, and then blew himself out and put the match to bed.

—The funeral of the late John Roethinger was held yesterday afternoon. The services were participated in by the members of the Masonic fraternity, and the Concordia Society, and were largely attended.

—G. M. Hanchett, the well-known hardware man on Main street, makes an unusual announcement concerning barbed fence wire. He tells the public how they can save 15 to 20 per cent. Just read what he says.

—The dime entertainment of the Q. E. D. Society, advertised for Lappin's hall, will be given in Apollo hall, where a musical and literary entertainment will be given, followed by a dance. Anderson's band will furnish the music.

—Elder Burnham was called upon last evening to tie a happy matrimonial knot, the parties to which were Wallace C. Brown, and Miss Edith B. Fellows, all of Janesville. The affair was quiet, but the occasion was no less happy, and many friends hope and believe that it is but the beginning of a long spell of sunniness.

—One of our exchanges advertises for sale old papers, and says they are better than kerosene oil to light fires with, and not half so dangerous. Judging from the amount of advertising it takes to make them go off it is evident they are not as explosive as kerosene, without saying so.

—The Young People's Q. E. D. Society of Christ Church will give one of their entertainments at Lappin's Hall Tuesday evening. An admittance of ten cents will be charged. After the literary exercises Anderson's band will furnish music for the dance. Tickets fifty cents.

—The Hook & Ladder boys are to give a merry dance on Thanksgiving eve, at Cannon's hall. There will be the best of music, the best of company, the best of everything. In fact it will be one of the truly enjoyable events of the season, and judging from the many who say they are going, there will be a crowd. There ought to be, and those who can't go, should invest in a ticket, and show their interest in that way, if in no other.

—Prof. Cumnock who gives a reading at Cannon's hall to-night ranks as head and shoulders above such elocutionists as have given entertainments here in the past. He is one of the best in the land. His readings to-night will present a variety, combining all shades of feeling, and spiced with fun enough to keep everybody wide-awake, and capped with that most side-splitting climax 'The Georgia Sermon." Anyone who misses that will lose much. It is immense.

—There was another disturbance at the colored folk's meeting last night. It is a shame that these good people can't have a chance to worship, without some overgrown young fellow raising a row. Some of these fellows, who go there for fun, may get in the fix of the Irishman who thought it would be fun to catch the bull by the horns. He was glad he had his laugh first One arrest has been made, the accused being William Cooley. His case will be tried Wednesday.

—Sew on the buttons, get new and strong suspenders, check off a seat, get some good-looking young lady to go with you, and take in the Dillon show to-night. The play is new, and is said to be running over with fun and frolic, with enough of the tender pathos to make it enjoyable. With such artists as Blaisdell and Miss Dillon to support him, he is well braced up, and the play will be given in the best shape possible. It will prove a treat of mirth, no doubt.

—Britton & Kimball are "doing themselves proud." They have put into their store some of the handsomest parlor sets ever brought into this city. They are—well, there's no use printing a long string of adjectives—the only way to get a good idea of the goods is to see them. The show don't cost a cent and it is a good one. They have some other elegant furniture as well, and keep stocked up on all grades, except worthless goods. They don't have any of these. It is gratifying too to look at these goods, without the liability of being paralyzed or knocked down by any big prices. The figures are low. In fact it is a good place to buy anything in their line.

—Hon. T. North, of Vassar Mich., and Hon. T. S. Applegate of Adrian, Mich., arrived in this city Saturday afternoon on an official visit, they being two of the three members of the committee appointed to take charge of the erection of a new asylum in Michigan for the care of the blind of that State. The third member of the Committee was Ex-Gov. Bagley, but he was unable to be present. The two gentlemen visited the Institution here, and examined the building closely, and inquired somewhat into its management. As it has been given into their hands to select a site and erect a building, they took a practical interest in all that they saw, and expressed themselves as highly pleased. They left this afternoon for home, going by way of Chicago. Mr. Applegate made the Gazette a pleasant call before leaving. He is an old newspaper man, and is now editor and proprietor of the Times published at Adrian.

THOMAS BAKER'S DEATH.

Many of our readers, who were acquainted with the late Thomas F. Baker, the news of whose death at Albany N. Y. has already been given, will read with sad interest the further particulars of that sudden calamity. It appears from the accounts published in the Albany papers that Mr. Baker, who was a brakesman in the employ of the New York Central railroad company, obtained a leave of abeence, for the purpose of going to Schenectady to visit sister who is lying seriously ill, He came back on a train which stopped at West Albany, at which point he stepped off for some purpose, and while standing on the up-track saw a train approaching going west. In order to avoid the same the unfortunate man moved over to the down track, when he was struck by a switch engine, which was backing up at the time. Baker was knocked down by the tender, and so severely injured that when those who saw the accident had reached the spot, life was extinct.

Mr. Baker was a man of very correct and careful habits, and there seems to be no blame attached to any one, the sad end being one of those almost unavoidable accidents which so often occur. He leaves a wife and two children, and the local papers of Albany and vicinity express for them only the most tender of sympathies, and for the deceased words worthy of his memory.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK, best accomodations, reduced prices.

THAT NEW HALL.

Smith's new block, on East Milwaukee street, is rapidly approaching completion. The first floor is admirably adapted for store purposes. The second floor is divided into offices, and doors are to be cut through into the other block, giving easy access by either way, and giving Dr. Palmer another entrance to his office. The third floor has been rented by the Odd Fellows, and has been arranged with a view to their comfort and convenience The ante-room is of commodious size, and from it is a large fuel room. Another door from the ante-room leads into a large reception room, with an examining room adjoining, and several large closets. From the reception room one enters the hall proper which is about thirty by fifty-six feet, and is eighteen feet in height. It it airy and imposing, and when it is made complete by the furniture on which the Odd Fellows propose to spend $1000, it will prove the most attractive and commodious hall of the kind in the State.

A CHANGE OF SCHOOL RULE.

In consequence of the increase of irregular attendance in the public schools of the city, materially impairing the scholarship in our schools, as well as the class interests of the individual pupil, the Board of Education have found it necessary to modify Rule 6, "Rules for Pupils" which hereafter will read as follows:

Truants, and pupils habitually absent or tardy, after proper admonition, and notification of parents may be suspended from school privileges; provided, any scholar who shall be absent four half days in three consecutive weeks, without an excuse from parent or guardian, satisfying the teacher that his absence was caused by his own sickness, or sickness in the family, or in primary departments by severity of the weather, shall be subject to a lower classification. No permit for the pupil to remain in his class before the change is made, or to be restored after being degraded, will be granted until the parent or guardian has given satisfactory assurance to the Board or Superintendent that such pupil will attend regularly in the future, unless prevented by the causes enumerated in this Rule. One tardiness shall be regarded as one half-day's absence. All cases of classification under this rule shall be made by the Superintendent.

SCATTERING THE SCRIPTURES.

Yesterday afternoon the Rock County Bible Socity held its annual meeting at the First Methodist church and listened to the reports of the officers, which showed that the net assets were $690 39, an increase of $33 83, and that there was in the treasury a cash balance of $213, and all debts were paid. The Society is in better shape than ever before for continuing its good work.

The following officers were elected:

President—F. S. Eldred.

Vice President—A. J. Ray.

Secretary—H. Moffit.

Treasurer and Depository—James Sutherland.

Directors—H. F. Bliss, John Wingate, James Blair, George F. Lane.

It was decided to give $25 to the Parent Bible Society, for the distribution of the Scriptures in other lands, and to appropriate $25 to furnishing Bibles to such public schools as requested copies, and to such rooms in hotels as needed to be supplied.

The Society has gratuitously distributed a great many Bibles in this county in the past, and has contributed generously to the work in other lands. It is in a flourishing condition, and its outlook is hopeful.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer at 6 o'clock last night stood at 22 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a. m., to-day at 12 degrees above, at 7 o'clock a. m. to-day, at 21 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 40 degrees above. Cloudy and windy.

The indications to-day are, for the upper lake region, falling barometer, increasing southeast to southwest winds and cloudiness, and rising temperature, probably followed in the northern portions by light snow.

WATERLOO, IOWA, Jan. 25, 1879.

I was taken with an acute attack of Rheumatism last fall, and confined to bed. At first employed a physician, without benefit; then sent to Wangler Bros.' Drug Store, and obtained a bottle of ST. JACOBS OIL, the use of which soon gave me relief, and cured me of the attack. I can safely recommend it to all suffering with Rheumatism. Respectfully,

A NARROW ESCAPE.

A Match Causes a Blaze at the Pember House, and gives Franklin Whittaker a Narrow Escape.

There was a lively hurrying to and fro among the guests at the Pember house about 2 o'clock Sunday morning, caused by the alarm of fire, which rang through the halls. The cry first came from Mr. Franklin Whittaker, who occupied Room No. 15, on the second floor, and was heard by Mr. A. N. Petty who occupies the adjoining room. The latter rushed to Whittaker's room from which the smoke was issuing, and forcing open the door, found Whittaker lying on the floor between the front of the bed and the wall, and the clothes lying on the floor burning briskly, the foot of the mattress being on fire. Whittaker was lying in a stupor, and was dragged out of the smoke and flames, and left in the hall, while those who had by this time become aroused, rushed to the blaze with pitchers of water, and soon quenched the fire.

It appears that Whittaker was in the habit of going to his room without any lamp, and after getting there would strike a match to see if everything was all right, and then turn in. This night he came in about 11 o'clock and went to his room, and it is supposed that after lighting a match he threw it away carelessly, and at fell on the foot of the bed, slowly setting it on fire. Others think he must have rolled out of bed, and then struck a match to see where he was. Several burned matches were found near the head of the bed on the floor. The foot of the mattress was badly burned, as was also the bedstead and clothing. The carpet was scorched in several places, and the wainscoting nearest the bed was scorched. Strangely enough Whittaker was not badly burned, his foot being somewhat scorched. Had it not been for the sharp ears of the young man in the adjoining room, Whittaker's stifled cry would probably have been issued in vain, and a terrible conflagration would have followed.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge Conger was in his place this morning, and a number of Court cases were called up, but little was done beyond giving continuances.

James McCarthy, who was found guilty of pointing a gun at another man, was fined $30, which he settled with cash.

Peter Decker, who was found guilty of assault, was fined $1 and costs, the latter amounting to $40 66, which made a very long tail to a very little kite.

On motion of Mr Carle the resolution by Mr Eldredge was made the special order for 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

On motion of Mr Eldredge the Board adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Mr Metcalf, from Committee No 1, presented the following report and moved its adoption:

The Committee on Illegal Taxes and Tax Certificates to whom was referred a charge of $10.56 made by the city of Janesville for grading done on east side South Bluff street, which the block on which this Court house stands, on the west side have given the matter due consideration, as there seemed to be some doubt whether the county is or is not liable for such tax. To present this question properly to the Board we must commence with the record at the organization of the county. Rock county was organized under Territorial law, in February, 1839, and in September of that year, under an act of Congress, preempted lots 5 & 6 and the e½ of the ne¼ fractional qr of section 30 for county purposes. And the following year, 1840, the county in its corporate capacity platted and laid out into city lots and blocks all of said land And designating the four blocks now known as the Court house grounds, as a public park, all of the remaining land preempted by the county was from time to time sold by the county. Rock county, in setting apart these four blocks as a public park virtually surrendered its title thereto. And the park has been public property within the city of Janesville, and is and should be in the care and custody of the city, except the block on which this Court house now stands, which has been in possession of the county and used for county purposes for forty years. Whether the county had or had not the right to erect a Court house on grounds designated as a public park, is a question we will not consider here, but they assumed the right and we believe it has never been contested, and erected a Court house on one of the blocks of this park where this building now stands. The county therefore controlling and virtually owning this block for county purposes is liable to be charged for grading streets on any or all sides of it as the city of Janesville is liable for a like charge for the public grounds and parks in the care and custody of the city.

Your Committee therefore recommended that the bill be paid.

J C METCALF,
L W KENDALL,
WM LUNN.
Committee.

Mr Metcalf moved that the Clerk draw an order on the County Treasurer for $10.56 in favor of the city of Janesville for said street tax.

Motion adopted.

Ayes—30.

Noes—0.

Mr Metcalf, from Committee No 1, presented the following report and resolution and moved their adoption.

The Committee on Illegal Taxes and Tax Certificates respectfully report on the petition of Olney Fuller, of the town of Milton, asking this Board of Supervisors to return to him $461.03 being the amount of tax levied and collected by the same town of Milton from said Fuller in the year 1878 on an assessment of one thousand dollars ($10,000) valuation of personal property.

The Committee believe they have carefully examined the claim of the petition and present the following statement of the case which in their opinion is true and substantially correct. Mr Fuller says he was absent from the State when his personal property return should have been made in 1878. He therefore made no return for that year. C S Vincent, the Assessor for the town of Milton, in 1878, thereupon in pursuance of his duty assessed the personal property of said Fuller to the best of his knowledge and belief, and fixed the sum at $10,000. Mr Fuller being absent from the State a statement of the amount of personal property assessed to him by the said assessor was left with his son-in-law, Mr Teeter, and forwarded to Mr Fuller five days before the meeting of the Board of Review of said town. [See statement of C S Vincent assessor] Mr Fuller did not appear before the Board of Review and tax was levied and collected on the amount as fixed by the assessor. We believe the proceedings of the assessor and Board of Review were correct and in accordance with the law prescribing their duties in such case.

As to the assessment being fixed too high by the assessor and confirmed by the Board of Review, your committee believe from the evidence now before them that the assessment was much too low. Mr Fuller alleges in his petition that he had no such amount as $10,000, personal property in this State. That his investments were in the State of Illinois, where he had an agent in charge of his business there. But your committee have no evidence whoever such agent may have been that as agent he had such control, management and custody of the personal property of Mr Fuller in the State of Illinois, as would render him liable as agent for tax on said property in that State. And we further believe that no tax was paid by any one on the investments of Mr Fuller in mortgage loans, in the State of Illinois, for the year 1878, and that such instruments are justly assessed to the said Fuller as a resident of the town of Milton.

Your committee therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the petitioner, Olney Fuller, of the town of Milton, Rock county, is not entitled to any relief from taxation as a resident of said town for the year 1878, on a valuation of $10,000, set opposite No. 13 of items of personal property returns for that year.

Mr Metcalf from Committee No. 1, presented the following report and resolution and moved their adoption:

The committee on illegal taxes and tax certificates, to whom was referred the petition of W C Butler, of the City of Janesville, asking this Board of Supervisors to return to him certain monies levied and collected as State and county tax on personal property assessed to the said Butler in the years 1876, 1877, and 1878, respectfully report that they have carefully considered the claims of the petition. That they have conferred with the several Assessors and Boards of Review who made and confirmed the assessments complained of in the aforesaid years and have learned their reasons for raising the assessments above the returns made by the said Butler during the three several years above mentioned and believe that the said Assessors and Boards of Review had good and sufficient cause for their action in raising the assessment above the returns made by said Butler.

We therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, By the Board of Supervisors, that the personal property of W C Butler, of the city of Janesville, was not over assessed in the years mentioned in his petition to this Board, and that we refuse to make return of any portion of the tax collected from him in the years 1876, 1877 and 1878.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J C METCALF,
L W KENDALL,
WM GUNN,
Committee.

Report and resolution adopted.

Mr McIntyre from Committee No. 10, made the following report and moved its adoption.

You Never Heard a Dentist

say that SOZODONT was not a good article to preserve the teeth and gums. This fact is not to be controverted. What gives it such prominence as a curative wash? It is compounded, after years of scientific plodding, of materials calculated to harden the gums, remove the septic acid, and avoid putrefaction.

So all ladies say of SPALDING'S GLUE. They use it to make Lovers stick. nov21deodw1w

A Case of Hydrothorax Cured.

DURAND, Wis., May 21, 1879.

MESSRS. SETH W. FOWLE & SONS:

Gentlemen:—It is now over nineteen years ago that my attention was directed to your highly valuable PERUVIAN SYRUP, which at that time was, I believe, the means of saving the health, and probably the life, of a young lady who was said by her physicians to have symptoms of hydrothorax, (dropsy of the chest,) from which disease her brother had lately died. She married at the age of nineteen, and for a long time had been unable to ascend a flight of stairs without stopping co take breath once or twice during the ascent, or indeed to take any active exercise without distress. She took the PERUVIAN SYRUP for six weeks, when all the before mentioned symptoms disappeared and have not since returned. This case occurred in Potsdam, N. Y., in 1860.
